Reference Letter

EGZONI SH.P.K.

(25.06.2019)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this reference for Genton Maliqi, who served as a director and leader in the construction and marble/granite sector at EGZONI SH.P.K. from April 2013 to June 2019.

Genton played a vital role in the establishment and successful management of EGZONI, demonstrating extensive knowledge in project management and the construction industry. He led various construction projects, including residential buildings, with great expertise. His dedication to delivering high-quality results and his exceptional communication skills helped build strong relationships with clients and suppliers, contributing to the expansion of our client base.

Furthermore, Genton invested significant time and effort in training and developing new workers, ensuring a highly qualified and motivated staff within the company.

I highly recommend Genton for any position in the construction and marble/granite industry. He has proven himself to be a reliable and competent professional, and I am confident he will continue to excel in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Gentiana Maliqi]
